Bruſſels,

Bruſſe's, Feb. 4. Count Coningſeck the Imperial Miniſter, came hither the 1ſt Inſtant from Antwerp. He is gone this Morning to Mechlin, to give the Deputies of the States General a Meeting there; but he will return hither to Morrow and expect Mr. Cadogan's Arrival from the Hague, unleſs thoſe Deputies have any new Inſtructions which may occaſion his going back with them to Antwerp ſooner. Yeſterday the ſaid Count took a Review, on the Eſplanade of this Place, of the Regiment of Horſe commanded by the Marquis de Weſterloo. The Commiſſaries who were charged with the Quartering and Providing for the Imperial Troops in Limbourg and Luxembourg are returned hither; having quartered for the preſent 2000 Horſe or Dragoons on the Peaſants of the Country of Limbourg which being too burthenſom to ſo ſmall an Extent of Ground, they muſt neceſſarily be removed in a ſhort time. The Regency have received an Account from Flanders, that the States of that Province excuſe themſelves from giving the Subſidy asked of them on Pretence of the Emperor's approaching Inauguration. This Refuſal will put the Council of State under great Difficulties to find Means for ſubſiſting the Troops aſſigned on that Country; however, the States of Flanders have ordered them Two Months Pay of the Seven due out of the Subſidy formerly granted. The Regency, in Compliance with Count Coningſeck's Deſire, have publiſhed Orders for opening a free Trade between Namur and Luxembourg and the other Parts of the Spaniſh Netherlands.

Hague, February 5. The States, in the Letter which they have written to the Biſhop of Munſter, on Occaſion of his commanding Officer in Bon's producing his Order for refuſing to admit into that Place a Battalion of their Forces, repreſent to him their great Surprize, that without Commiſſion from the Emperor, or the Conſent of the Empire, or ſo much as conſulting the Circle of Weſtphalia, he ſhould of his own Authority proceed in ſuch a manner; putting him in Mind of his Obligations to them for his Election to the See of Munſter; and in Concluſion exhorting him in very earneſt Terms to recall forthwith his ſaid Order. The Eſtimate and Eſtabliſhment for the Military Service this current Year, having been preſented by the Council of State to their High Mightineſſes, has been ſent to the reſpective Provinces for their Approbation and Conſent: In the Preamble to it, commonly called the Petition of the ſaid Council they repreſent, That the maintaining with the neighbouring Potentates mutual Friendſhip and good Correſpondence is the true Means to preſerve the Peace, and therefore adviſe the States not to be wanting thereto on their Part; That however, the Republick ought to continue armed, leaſt it might ſooner or later be ſurprized, as it was in 1665 and in 1668: They alſo ſet forth the Neceſſity of the State's keeping able Generals in its Service, as well as inferior Officers, and are urgent for their being allowed reaſonable Penſions: They obſerve, that by the Treaty of Alliance in 1701, made between the Emperor, Great Britain and this State, it was ſtipulated that the Spaniſh Netherlands ſhould ſerve for its Barrier; that however, the Country is ſo open from Conde to Liſle, that conſidering the Extent of that Opening, and the ſituation of the chief Towns of the United Provinces which are of no Defence, they think the State ought not to rely wholly on that Barrier, but to look alſo to the Security of its antient Frontier, particularly to Bergen op zoom, Bolduc and Nimeguen, and be at the Expence of well repairing their Fortifications, the rather becauſe our Neighbours are ſtrengthning their Frontier Places which lie oppoſite to this State: They repreſent the Neceſſity of keeping the Magazines of Proviſions and Ammunition always full. They likewiſe urge the Neceſſity of the State's having conſtantly a ſufficient Number of Men of War in readineſs for Service, conſidering that of the ſeven Provinces four are Maritime; and therefore propoſe the Plan formed in 1685, according to which the State would have 96 Ships of War always ready; and as there is Want of Ships, they ſhew that the Building a certain Number yearly would be very expedient. They earneſtly exhort the States of the ſeveral Provinces, ſo to direct Affairs in this Time of Peace, that not only the preſent Inhabitants may continue in the Country, but Foreigners may be encouraged to come and ſettle in it, ſeeing its naturally ſtrong Situation, the Conſtitution of the Government, and the Protection their High Mightineſſes are able, and always ready to give their Subjects joined with Liberty of Conſcience, do all contribute to invite Foreigners into their Dominions. They argue the abſolute Neceſſity of encouraging Commerce with Foreign Nations, from this plain Reaſon, that the Taxes with which the People are charged are more than double the Revenue which the Products of the Land yield: They repreſent, that this Country ought to be looked upon as an Artificial Store-houſe or Mart, for all ſorts of Goods and Merchandize between the North and the South; and that therefore great Care ſhould be taken that Trade in general and particularly that of the Baltick, be not diſturbed or diverted into new Channels. The Mennoniſts in this Country, a Sect much like that of the Quakers, having received Advice, that the Canton of Berne have newly impriſoned ſome of their Brethren in Switzerland, and condemned five of thoſe Priſoners to the Gallies for Life, have Petitioned the States to renew their Interpoſition with the ſaid Canton in behalf of thoſe Sufferers, to the end they may be ſet at Liberty and ſent away to the Palatinate or to Alſace or hither, after being permitted to diſpoſe of their Effects, in caſe the Regents of Berne have determined not to let Perſons of their Perſwaſion live any longer among their People, which from this laſt rigorous Proceeding 'tis ſuppoſed they have abſolutely reſolved upon; and indeed, the peculiar Foundation and Security of the Swiſs Liberty, being the training up all their Subjects to Arms, and not keeping any hired Troops, the Mennoniſts could hardly have found a part of the World ſo unqualified as Switzerland to tollerate their Opinion of the unlawfulneſs of uſing Arms. The States in compliance with the ſaid Petition have written to the Lords of Berne.
